

Greetings from the MCA!

The day has arrived to register for our 90th Anniversary Annual Meeting. All registrations will be handled through the MOAA website. When you indicate you will be there for the MCA, your registration will go to our events and to MOAA events open to MCA members. We will mail registration forms to our members who do not have computer access. If you prefer the printed and mailed registration form, you will find it here.

Online registration will be open until September 15. Payment for meals will be collected when you arrive and check in. Mailed registrations must be in our hands by September 1. Payment should accompany mailed registrations.

DON'T FORGET TO MAKE YOUR HOTEL RESERVATIONS. Instructions are below.

SOME HIGHLIGHTS

On the first day, Thursday, October 20, you will be able to participate in one or more workshops ... or enjoy the Orlando theme parks.

For the MCA NATIONAL INSTITUTE, we will have two sessions on Friday, October 30:

8:00-11:30 - Moral Injury (panel)

- Dr. Ed Tick (Soldier's Heart), author of War and the Soul, Warriors Return: Restoring the Soul After War, and others
- Mr. David Wood (Pulitzer prize winning author for his riveting exploration of the physical and emotional challenges facing American soldiers severely wounded in Iraq and Afghanistan during a decade of war.)
- Ch. Herman Keizer, USA-Ret, co-founder of the Soul Repair Center at Brite Divinity School

1400-1530 - Religious Freedom in the Armed Forces

- RADM Margaret Kibben, CHC, USN: Chief of Chaplains

The complete schedule can be found on this link and will be included in the September issue of The Military Chaplain.
