

Release of Confidentiality and/or Privileged Communication

Realizing that in speaking with any chaplain, total and absolute confidentiality is assumed and expected, I, _____, DO or DO NOT (please circle one) hereby waive ALL of my rights to privacy and privileged communications with clergy [under Rules for Court-martial (R.C.M.) 503. R.C.M. 510] in ANY and ALL communication(s) that I have ever had with Chaplain _____ . I release her/him from any restriction(s) whatsoever and s/he may disclose any and all conversations, emails, texts, social media conversations, recordings, personal notes, and any other data that s/he has collected to the Army's Investigating Officer and any other official military or law enforcement official, and/or mental health authorities. Absolutely NOTHING is off-limits.
