Honor the Fallen: A Chaplain's Guide

Soldiers go into battle, knowing the risks and sacrifices required for such a noble profession. They freely offer themselves to serve their country for a mission that is larger than themselves. War takes a toll on the family, friends, and country. For those dealing with death there is burden, loss, and grief. Within the act of honoring the dead, Chaplains bring light to the darkness, reaffirm meaning, give voice to grief and honor the service of those who have served their country. Since 1775, Chaplains have been providing religious support. They Nurture the Living, Care for the Wounded and Honor the Fallen.

Religious support honors the dead. We revere those who have died and lay to rest those who have served our nation with dignity and honor and treat their Families with respect and compassion. Funerals reflect the emphasis the American people place on the worth and value of the individual.

Throughout this resource you will find tips, suggestions, and personal examples. It is our hope and prayer that this guide will serve as a helpful tool for use as you plan, prepare and help others Honor the Fallen.

God's Blessings as you serve our Nation's best,

INTERVIEW CHEAT SHEET

(Call the funeral home first and inform them you will be the officiant and confirm DTG. Ask them to send you info they have that would help you. (a copy of the DD214, obituary, list of awards, other family contact information, family dynamics, etc.). If you are unable to contact funeral home, look for the obituary online at www.legacy.com. That can give you some good information prior to a conversation with the family. When contacting a family prior to a funeral, whether in person or on the phone, it is helpful to get some basic information.

When Calling NOK: “Good morning. My name is Chaplain (Madison) and I’m trying to get in touch with (Mrs. Smith). Yes (Ma’am). The reason I’m calling today is that I’m the chaplain who will be conducting the service for your (husband, COL James Smith). Is now a good time to talk?” (If so, I move down my list of questions. If not, I try to find out a good time to call back.)

RANK/NAME (NICKNAME): Here I am verifying the information I already have, making sure I have the correct pronunciation, and finding out if “William” went by “Bill” for example. I like to mention that I plan on calling the veteran by his/her rank during the military portion of the service and use their familiar name during more personal parts if that is ok.

DOB/DOD: If you plan on mentioning when the decedent was born and died, make sure you have this information correct. Sometimes obituaries are wrong.

BEST CONTACT: It’s a good idea to ask if this is the best number to contact them on. Sometimes I have found it helpful to have an email address in order to exchange information. Families will sometimes have a eulogy written that they’d like you to share from and you can get it ahead of time via email.

DTG OF SERVICE: Again, here I’m just making sure everyone is on the same page.

MARITAL INFORMATION: I ask how long the couple was married so I can possibly highlight that in my comments. You can also find out through this question if it’s a second marriage, divorced, separated, etc.

MILITARY AWARDS/SERVICE: If I already have the DD214 ahead of time, this allows me to say something like, “I see that your husband was a paratrooper and highly decorated.” I let them know I already have access to the decedent’s military record so they don’t have to provide that for me. Watch for discrepancies between the DD214 and the obituary. Ask about their military career.

PROVERBS 31

(Description of a Worthy Woman)

- ¹⁰ An excellent wife, who can find?
For her worth is far above jewels.
- ¹¹ The heart of her husband trusts in her,
And he will have no lack of gain.
- ¹² She does him good and not evil
All the days of her life.
- ¹³ She looks for wool and flax
And works with her ^[a]hands ^[b]in delight.
- ¹⁴ She is like merchant ships;
She brings her food from afar.
- ¹⁵ She rises also while it is still night
And gives food to her household
And ^[c]portions to her maidens.
- ¹⁶ She considers a field and buys it;
From ^[d]her earnings she plants a vineyard.
- ¹⁷ She girds ^[e]herself with strength
And makes her arms strong.
- ¹⁸ She senses that her gain is good;
Her lamp does not go out at night.
- ¹⁹ She stretches out her hands to the distaff,
And her ^[f]hands grasp the spindle.
- ²⁰ She ^[g]extends her hand to the poor,
And she stretches out her hands to the needy.
- ²¹ She is not afraid of the snow for her household,
For all her household are clothed with scarlet.
- ²² She makes coverings for herself;
Her clothing is fine linen and purple.
- ²³ Her husband is known in the gates,
When he sits among the elders of the land.
- ²⁴ She makes linen garments and sells them,
And ^[h]supplies belts to the ^[i]tradesmen.
- ²⁵ Strength and dignity are her clothing,
And she smiles at the ^[j]future.
- ²⁶ She opens her mouth in wisdom,
And the ^[k]teaching of kindness is on her tongue.

And does not eat the bread of idleness.

of eternal life. And, in this place the Bible tells us, “No eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it entered into the heart of man what God has prepared for those who love Him.” This is where _____ now resides and where one day through Jesus we will join her there.

LUKE 4:18

“The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.” As a former Prisoner of War, _____ had a unique understanding of what it meant to be freed from captivity. Jesus came to free us all from our sin if we would only trust in Him. This promise was true for Clifton and it remains true for us today. And so...

ISAIAH 25:6-9

“On this mountain the Lord Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for all peoples, a banquet of aged wine – the best of meats and the finest of wines. On this mountain he will destroy the shroud that enfolds all peoples, the sheet that covers all nations; he will swallow up death forever. The Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces; he will remove the disgrace of his people from all the earth. The Lord has spoken. In that day they will say, ‘Surely this is our God; we trusted in him, and he saved us. This is the Lord, we trusted in him, let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation.’ This passage reminds us that the Lord has promised us a future with no death and no tears. _____ has already inherited that promise and we look forward to the day we join him/her in heaven. And so....

ISAIAH 61:103

(To comfort those who mourn)

“The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is on me, because the Lord has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all who mourn, and provide for those who grieve in Zion – to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair. They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the Lord for the display of his splendor.” As you mourn the loss of _____ today, may you be reminded that the Lord

WARTIME SERVICE: Did they serve during WWII, Korea, Vietnam, OEF/OIF etc.?

FAITH BACKGROUND: There are various ways to get to this. I like to ask, “What was your _____’s faith background? Did they have a particular denomination or church they attended?” Some people will ask, “Did your husband consider himself a Christian?” This is important b/c sometimes a mistake will be made and a Protestant can get assigned to conduct a funeral service when the deceased is actually Catholic! This information also helps you choose appropriate Scripture passages.

CIVILIAN CAREER: This helps you get a bigger picture of what the deceased did in life. It’s especially relevant if they only served in the military for a short time.

HOBBIES/INTERESTS: Again, this gives you greater insight into who the person was.

SURVIVING FAMILY: Many times I like to mention in my remarks, “_____ was preceded in death by _____, but he is survived by.....” This question helps me get that. Don’t rely upon obituaries to be correct all the time with this detail. Also, this helps you get a sense of any family dynamics at play.

REQUESTED SCRIPTURE: Many times I’ll mention I have the perfect Scripture for the service, but other times I’ll ask if they have a favorite Scripture they’d like included.

ANYTHING ELSE YOU’D LIKE ME TO KNOW: I like to end with this question. Then I close the conversation (if via phone) with a reminder of the date and time of the service and that I’ll come in and see them about 30 minutes prior. In the meantime if they have any questions, I give them my contact information for them to follow up.

FOR A CHAPEL SERVICE: Be sure to talk about the order of service, who besides you will be speaking, music considerations, and time constraints. Make sure you know if any other Clergy will be involved.

JOHN 15:13

(Graveside Active Duty Hostile Fire)

Jesus talked about that kind of sacrificial love and we read about it in John 15. He said, “My command is this: love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends.” We are surrounded today by great men and women who did just that. We are surrounded by others and bury one today who was willing to do just that if called upon. _____ demonstrated sacrificial, Christ-like love during his life to his country, to his family, and to his Lord and we honor him today.

2TIMOTHY 2:1-3; 4:7-8

I believe that God has a special place in His heart for soldiers and we see many times in His word references to soldiers. Paul wrote to his protégé Timothy and encouraged him with these words: “You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. The things which you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, entrust these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also. Suffer hardship with me, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ Jesus.”

An NCO is responsible for teaching young men and he sets the example for them even as he suffers hardship. I’m sure that’s what _____ did throughout his career.

Paul goes on to tell Timothy, “I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith. Now there is store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day--and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.”

We’re here this afternoon to honor _____ for fighting the good fight, finishing the course and keeping the faith. May he enjoy the rewards of heaven.

EPHESIANS 2:8-9

“But friends, not only have we come together today to reflect upon the life of _____ and the sacrifices she made for her nation and family, but more importantly, we gather today to celebrate the sacrifice that was made for her so that she might have the gift of eternal life.

In Ephesians 2:8-9, the Apostle Paul writes, “For we are saved by grace through faith and not by works so that no man can boast before the presence of the living God.” By placing our faith, not in a religion, but in a person – Jesus – believing that He both died for our sins and rose again from the dead, we have the promise

I CORINTHIANS 15:50-58

"I declare to you, brothers and sisters, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. Listen, I tell you a mystery; we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed – in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality. When the perishable has been clothed with imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: 'Death has been swallowed up in victory.' Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

_____ has traded the perishable body for an imperishable one. He is now with Christ where his mind and body have found true healing. And so...

JOHN 14:1-4

Jesus told his disciples shortly before His death, "Let not your hearts be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me. In my father's house are many dwelling places; if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto Myself. That where I am, there you may be also. This promise Christ made to His disciples was true for ---

ROMANS 8:35-39

35 Who will separate us from the love of Christ ? Will tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword ? 36 Just as it is written, "FOR YOUR SAKE WE ARE BEING PUT TO DEATH ALL DAY WE WERE CONSIDERED AS SHEEP TO BE SLAUGHTERED." 37 But in all these things we overwhelmingly conquer through Him who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, 39 nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. PURPLE HEART

This medal is unlike any other military award. The original Purple Heart was established by George Washington on August 7, 1782. The actual order includes the phrase, "Let it be known that he who wears the military order of the Purple Heart has given of his blood in the defense of his homeland and shall forever be revered by his fellow countrymen." While many have served our Nation, _____ shed his blood for the freedoms we hold dear today.

IRISH PRAYER

SPECIAL FORCES PRAYER

Almighty God, Who art the Author of liberty and the Champion of the oppressed, hear our prayer. We the men of Special Forces, acknowledge our dependence upon Thee in the preservation of human freedom. Go with us as we seek to defend the defenseless and to free the enslaved. May we ever remember that our nation, whose oath "In God We Trust" expects that we shall acquit ourselves with honor, that we may never bring shame upon our faith, our families, or our fellow men. Grant us wisdom from Thy mind, courage from thine heart, and protection by Thine hand. It is for Thee that we do battle, and to Thee belongs the victor's crown, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power and Glory forever. AMEN

Please join me in prayer...

PASTORAL PRAYER

Almighty God, our creator and redeemer, you are our comfort and strength. You have given us our (brother William Fair) to know and to love in the journey of life on this earth. Be with us now as we entrust him to your boundless love and eternal care. Assure us that not even death can separate us from your mercy. Help us in our grief to recall all the moments of Joy. Comfort us in our pain and wipe our tears away. Deal graciously with us in our grief, remind us of your grace, and help us learn to live in confident hope in the resurrection; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

BENEDICTION

May God, who is our refuge and strength, be to you a very present help in trouble. May the river that streams from the throne of God be your help when the morning dawns. Be still and know that He is God! He is exalted among the nations, he is exalted in all the earth! Amen.

(JOHNNY) loved life and was a very caring person who met no strangers. He liked to stay up to date on current events and was always willing and able to carry on a good conversation. (JOHNNY) had a passion for cooking and took joy from your enjoyment of the meal he had prepared. (Johnny's) motto in life was "excellence, humility, and respect are the tools for success." But most importantly, (JOHNNY) was a follower of Christ who accepted Christ as Lord and Savior at an early age growing up in Proctor, Arkansas. It is because of that decision to follow Christ that today can be a celebration. We know that today is not the end of the story and we do not say goodbye, but farewell, until we meet again.

(JOHNNY) was by all accounts an extraordinary individual. He remains one of the last of those considered the greatest generation this country has ever known, and we in uniform are honored to celebrate his life and military service with you this afternoon.

2 CORINTHIANS 5

I want to share with a passage of Scripture this morning from Paul's letter to the Corinthians. 2 Corinthians 5:5-6 says, "Now it is God who has made us for this very purpose and has given us the Spirit as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come. Therefore, we are always confident and know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord. We live by faith, not by sight. We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord."

Today we celebrate that (Johnny) is at home with the Lord and so...

The Psalm we pray this afternoon, we do not pray for (JOHNNY) but for ourselves.

PSALM 23:

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not be in want.
He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters; He restores my soul.
He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me. Your rod and staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table for me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil. My cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord my God forevermore. Amen.

I just want to encourage you. If (JOHNNY) is in Christ and Christ is in you, then (JOHNNY) can't be far.

Please pray with me.
In the sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ, we commend to Almighty God our brother (JOHNNY) and we commit his ashes to their resting place.

Earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust. Amen.

make sense of life and death.

Friends, never forget that just because, we have turned away or have closed our eyes to God. It does not mean that he has left or forsaken us. God is there. So turn around and open your eyes. God is there. God is here!

Sacrifice inspires men who are willing to step into adventure and danger and the cost of their lives to fight for freedom of another. This stirs deep down in our soul.

John 15:13 says "No greater love than this, than a man lay down his life for his friend."

John 3:16- "For God so loved the world that he gave his son, that whomever believes in him will not perish but have eternal life."

Sacrifice inspires us because it mirrors God's love and goodness.

There is something that stirs within us when men are willing to sacrifice their lives for a cause.

We begin to see the heart of God.

We see that through Death comes life.

In the midst of pain there is Joy.

In the midst of despair we find hope.

(William) was deeply loved and will be deeply missed.

Today, we gather to remember, to honor, and salute, (a husband, father), friend, and fellow Soldier.

Today, we must remember the special times with (William) and hold these memories in our hearts.

Today we come to remember (SFC William Fair)

We come to remember, and say Good bye,
Good Bye for now!

As we close this service, The family has asked to sing (William's) favorite song. "You are my Sunshine"

You are my sunshine
My only sunshine.
You make me happy
When skies are grey.

they Mentioned (SFC Fair) still having a shirt with a bullet hole in it where he had been grazed. (Add personal info here)

As we continue in the Psalms we read these words, in Psalm 139:1-16

¹You have searched me, LORD, and you know me.
²You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar. ³You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways. ⁴Before a word is on my tongue you, LORD, know it completely. ⁵You hem me in behind and before, and you lay your hand upon me. ⁶Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain. ⁷Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence? ⁸If I go up to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there. ⁹If I rise on the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the sea, ¹⁰even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast. ¹¹If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me and the light become night around me," ¹²even the darkness will not be dark to you; the night will shine like the day, for darkness is as light to you. ¹³For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. ¹⁴I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. ¹⁵My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth. ¹⁶Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

*Sometimes we feel like if we mess up, or if we don't want anything to do with God. That God stops caring about us, and that God leaves us or we can hide from God. I think this passage is saying, that there is nothing you can do, there is no where you can go to get away from God!

He is there right by your side.

The Psalmist concludes in verse 23-24

²³Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts.

²⁴See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Times like these, we come face to face with God. With prayers and questions, seeking forgiveness and answers, as we try to greatest act of religious training-Sacrifice. In battle and in the face of danger and death, he discloses those divine attributes which his maker gave when He created man in his own image. No physical courage and no brute instinct can take the place if the divine help which alone can sustain him."

There are times in our lives when the only way to make it through is with the help of God.

We turn to the pages of scripture and Read Psalm 91 often called the Soldier's Psalm.

¹ Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

² I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

³ Surely he will save you from the fowler's snare and from the deadly pestilence.

⁴ He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.

⁵ You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day, ⁶ nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday.

⁷ A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.

⁸ You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked. ⁹ If you say, "The LORD is my refuge," and you make the Most High your dwelling, ¹⁰ no harm will overtake you, no disaster will come near your tent. ¹¹ For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways;

¹² they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.

¹³ You will tread on the lion and the cobra; you will trample the great lion and the serpent.

¹⁴ "Because he loves me," says the LORD, "I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name. ¹⁵ He will call on me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honor him. ¹⁶ With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation."

Many soldiers have read these words and prayed this prayer, (William) knew the reality first hand of life and death, Good and evil and God's hand of protection. When talking to the family country, but also to his family and to his community. Truly, we measure a life NOT by the accumulation of wealth, nor by the earning of rank or accolades or awards, BUT we weigh a life by the touch one has on the lives of the people they love, the people they serve. Your presence with us today speaks volumes to the impact (William) has had in each of your lives. We are truly blessed to have had such a man live and serve among us.

For many, it is an honor to become a soldier and even a greater honor still, that at the end of life, to be remembered as one. For it is the Valiant who commit their life to sharpening their skills, to focusing their efforts, to wearing the uniform that one day ventures off with other soldiers, side-by side, to uphold and defend the ideals of freedom, though it may cost them their lives. And for those who venture off to defend and survive and make soldiering their life, theirs is a legacy past from Soldier. . . to Soldier.

Gen. Douglas Mac Arthur in 1962 in his speech at West Point “Duty, Honor, Country” said:

“The Soldier, above all other men, is required to practice the
